FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WILMINGTON, N.C. — It's that time again! Time for the W.U.F.F. Summer League Ultimate Frisbee Tournament. Since June 19, we have been perfecting our most impressive moves in order to give you the best entertainment for your sports coverage dollar. On Saturday, August 9, you can envy us as we “go ho”; admire how far we can “huck the disc”; revel in the tension of our “hot D”; follow our “flicks”; and join us in the “zone”.

All this exciting sports action will be brought to you by the following teams: Buddha's Belly Soon Come, Smudged Pot Bears, Hooters Revolver, P.T.'s Players, Budweiser, Alright Hamilton (Budlight), Hardee's Heat, and Nodge's Conniption.

You know, North Carolina boasts a plethora of top ultimate players – some of the best in the country, in fact. Summer league participants include players from top-ranked ultimate teams such as the Port City Slickers, Ring of Fire, and college championship teams NCSU's Jinx, ECU's Irates, and UNC-Wilmington's own repeat champs, the Seamen (men) and the Seaweed (women). Keep in mind that summer league is predominantly about fun. People of all levels are encouraged to play. That does not mean that you won't see good ultimate frisbee played. It means that enthusiasm is as highly regard as raw talent or developed skill.

To prepare this recipe of keen sports coverage, you need only a bunch of enthusiasm, a smattering of sunblock, and perhaps a pinch of awe. Don't forget to add one (or more!) ENG crew or top notch reporter to the mix. And as for us? Well, we promise to have a heaping helping of your journalistic hospitality!
